THE SEARCH

Handshake was created specifically for colleges and universities for students and recent graduates (so you!). Use Handshake to search for internships, but also to register for Career Center events and make an appointment.

Company Websites are a great way to learn about new positions. Keep a running list of companies you're interested in working at and revisit their careers page weekly or biweekly.

LinkedIn allows you to build your network and connect with alumni and employers. It also has a button to search for jobs when applying.

Indeed has thousands of job postings around the world. It provides a great space to explore and apply for local and national positions.

Your Network offers you the opportunity to reach out to your network and see what jobs and career paths are out there. You never know who could land you a future job.

Career Fairs are a great way to expand your network and explore what is out there. Build your elevator pitch ahead of time so you can impress employers.

Career Center can help each step of the way. We might know the perfect connection for you and what you are looking for, but either way, we've got a ton of pro-tips up our sleeve.
