

Dependent Request Form for Spouses/Children of F-1 Students

A student is eligible to request a dependent if:

1. The dependent is a married spouse, common law spouse (with proper documents), or offspring.
2. The principle student is accepted to Walsh University and will be attending the institution or is currently attending the institution.

Procedures to Apply:

Schedule an appointment with Culture & Belonging and bring the following:

1. Obtain financial documents (less than six months old) for the current academic year's expenses plus $4500/year for your first dependent and $2500/year for each subsequent dependent (if applicable).
2. Marriage certificate for spouse and/or birth certificate for children (can be a copy).
3. Completed bottom section of this form.

 If you are not currently in the United States, send these materials to the Culture & Belonging office.

Important Information:

1. F-2 dependents cannot study full time or work while in the US.
2. F-2 dependents do not need to pay the SEVIS fee. Each dependent will have their own I-20.
